

*OF230 _____

Maintained by _____

Please log-on to your YEN account from May to submit the crop and field details

YEN Actions for your entry		Date sent/completed (Deadline)	Completed By
1. Record Field and crop details by logging into your YEN account	*Record Sowing date	Within 2 weeks of registering the entry
2. Send Soil Sample to NRM (600g)		30 April
3. Send first Leaf Sample to Lancrop Growth stage – Green bud (GS 3.3-3.5)	*Record Date - Green bud just visible	Winter sown - March Spring sown – April/May
4. Send second Leaf Sample to Lancrop Growth stage – early flowering (GS 4.1-4.5)	*Record Date - First flower open on main raceme	Winter sown - April Spring sown – May/June
5. Send your Grab samples in Potato sack to ADAS		Winter sown – 15 August Spring sown – 31 August
6. Send your seed sample from the YEN field to ADAS (600gm)		Winter sown – 31 August Spring sown – 15 Sept
7. Send your seed sample from the YEN field to NRM using NRM kit for nutrient analysis (200gm)		Winter sown – 31 August Spring sown – 15 Sept
8. Send your seed sample from the YEN field to Sciantec for %Oil analysis using Sciantec kit (200gm)		Winter sown – 31 August Spring sown – 15 Sept
9. Complete all data entry for your YEN field via YEN portal		30 September
10. Send your Yield Form with stubble count and yield information – Important! We use the yield for many benchmark calculations		15 September

- ❖ EU growers should follow their welcome pack guide for postage of various tissue and grab samples
- ❖ Deadlines for Leaf tissue is for reference, please make sure you submit the sample at correct growth stage for your crop.

* Please remember to note the key crop development dates. When the online portal is open later in the season, please remember to share this information.